

Two Blue Swallows

words by kate power

music by steve einhorn and kate power

Turning, burning,
Two blue swallows
Sweeping, swirling,
Side by side.

I follow you anywhere
You call to me, I'll be there

Walking, talking,
Hand in hand and
Feelings reeling
Where we stand

You first said hello to me
I – I found our hearts agree

I say, you say
We say, "Love me."
I do, you do
We marry

Children come and then they go
Time, suddenly fast and slow

Tumble, stumble
Falling down
Rumble, crumble
Break new ground

Now we are as old as trees
Life fills up with memories
